ACCREDITED SEMINARS –

Due to accreditation standards and obligations, participants must attend the entire program in order to receive accreditation and certificate. Any person arriving late, missing a session, or leaving early will not be supplied with a certificate.

WHAT TO BRING - Pen / Note paper

MANUALS – Previously supplied to participants who have completed the full day seminar

CERTIFICATES – Will be forwarded to participants within 7 days of the seminar

Accreditation certificates can only be supplied to those who have attended and completed the full day seminar within the last three years.

Those not requiring accreditation are welcome and encouraged to attend the session as an information session.

A certificate of attendance will be issued.

FEES – The cost of the seminar is covered by Baptist Churches SA

PLEASE NOTE –

Mobile phones – must be switched off at all times

Babies/Children – are not permitted

Persons under the age of 17 years are not permitted to attend and complete the seminar without parental approval.

It is recommended that parents contact their pastor or CACET Global to discuss the content of the seminar.

WARNING –

The topic of child abuse is a confronting issue. CACET Global advises that whilst seminars are custom designed in order to be relevant to, and meet the specific needs of individual organisations, that some components may be disturbing. If for personal reasons any person is in doubt, they should discuss the situation with their pastor or CACET Global prior to attending.

CANCELLATIONS –

If you are unable to attend a seminar it is important that you advise CACET Global as soon as possible.

CACET Global reserves the right to cancel or re schedule seminars in unforeseen circumstances.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION –

For additional information please refer to the Baptist Churches SA website under: RESOURCING CHURCHES and CHILD PROTECTION/PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS.
