

ACCREDITATION POLICY

1. CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

This Accreditation Policy has been prepared by the Accreditation and Ordination Committee in accordance with Clause 19.2.3.1 of the Constitution.

2. CATEGORIES OF ACCREDITATION

- 2.1 Provision is available for people to seek accreditation in any of the following categories.
- 2.1.1 Pastor-Leader: Women and men who have been called by a church community and are gifted to bring Godly leadership to the church community as a whole.
 - 2.1.2 Pastor: Women and men who have been called by a church community and are gifted to bring Godly leadership to a particular area of church focus.
 - 2.1.3 Chaplain
 - 2.1.4 Church Planter
- 2.2 The accreditation of an Associate Pastor will specify the particular category to which that accreditation applies. Should an Accredited Associate Pastor or Chaplain seek accreditation as a Pastor-Leader or in a different category as an Associate Pastor or as a Chaplain, they make application to the Accreditation and Ordination Committee (AOC). The AOC will then determine any additional qualifications, training or experience required to recommend such further accreditation, based on the specific circumstances of the individual. Once the applicant has satisfied the AOC that they have demonstrated the required Character, Ministry Experience and Learning, the AOC will recommend to the Assembly Board that the additional accreditation category be endorsed and the recommendation will be processed in accordance with Clause 19.2 of the Constitution.

The Applicant obtains an Application Pack by contacting the Personal Assistant to the State Executive Minister at the Baptist Centre.

5. CONTINUING ACCREDITATION PROCESS

- 5.1 The following process is established to enable a periodic review of accredited people to ensure ongoing achievement of appropriate Accreditation Criteria, and to encourage self-development and the maintenance of professional standards.
- 5.2 This process of professional development and continuing accreditation is promoted and conducted at all stages in a spirit of constructive and positive cooperation.
- 5.2.1 A Professional Development Plan is a three-year plan designed to assist an accredited person (participant) to maintain and update relevant Accreditation Criteria. It is a requirement that this programme will include the appointment of a suitable Professional Development Plan Mentor/Companion.

- 5.2.2 As part of an application for Accreditation, the applicant will prepare their initial Professional Development Plan (see 4.2.9)
 - 5.2.3 The participant will commence their initial Professional Development Plan upon approval of Accreditation.
 - 5.2.4 On a triennial basis, the AOC will write to each participant, asking for a succinct written summary of activities, relevant to the Accreditation Criteria, undertaken during the previous three years, and including guidelines to assist the participant in preparing this written summary. At the same time, the AOC will write to that participant's Church Leadership Group (or other appropriate body) and any other person that the participant agrees might help in the review, seeking a succinct written statement on the participant's suitability for continuing accreditation and encouraging consultation with the participant on this matter.
 - 5.2.5 Upon receipt of these documents, the AOC will check if there are any concerns. If not, the AOC will advise the Assembly Board, the participant, and the Church Leadership Group accordingly, the participant's accreditation will continue, and no further action will be required. The participant will then develop a self-development programme to cover the ensuing three-year period, with assistance, if sought, by the AOC.
 - 5.2.6 Should, upon receipt of the documents, the AOC have any concerns, it will arrange appropriate discussions with the participant and, if required, the Church Leadership Group, the participant's Professional Development Program Mentor/Companion, and/or any other person who is able to assist with the review. If, after these discussions, the AOC considers that suitability for the participant's continuing accreditation has been demonstrated, it will advise the Assembly Board, the participant, and the Church Leadership Group accordingly and no further action will be required, other than the preparation of the ensuing self-development programme.
 - 5.2.7 In the event that, after an appropriate level of consultation with the participant and others involved in the process, the AOC forms the view that the participant's accreditation should be discontinued, it will fully document its recommendations and forward them to the Assembly Board for consideration and whatever action, within the provisions of Baptist Churches of SA policies and the principles of 'natural justice', the Assembly Board deems appropriate.
- 5.3 Notification of change of circumstances. In the event of a change in circumstances, e.g. employment situation, marital status, etc., an accredited person is to advise the AOC in order to enable a review of their professional development and continuing accreditation arrangements.

6. ORDINATION PROCESS

- 6.1 The term "ordination" is used as an additional, optional, public recognition of a call to ministry for accredited pastors working in any of the ministry categories.
- 6.2 Should an Accredited Pastor or Chaplain decide to seek ordination, the following process applies.
 - 6.2.1 The accredited pastor contacts the AOC and indicates a desire to be formally ordained.
 - 6.2.2 The AOC makes sufficient enquiries to confirm that the person seeking formal ordination is an accredited South Australian Baptist Pastor or Chaplain.

- 6.2.3 The AOC requests the Pastor's/Chaplain's local Church to arrange the Ordination Service, including in that Service the involvement of representatives of the wider family of churches.

7. PROVISIONAL ACCREDITATION PROCESS

- 7.1 A number of Churches include in their constitutions a requirement for a Pastor to hold Accreditation with Baptist Churches of SA.
- 7.2 Should a Pastor who is not accredited be called to ministry in such Church, a system of "Provisional Accreditation", covering a period of up to 12 months, is available.
- 7.3 Provisional Accreditation requires:
- 7.3.1 The submission, by the individual concerned, of an application for Accreditation,
 - 7.3.2 A preliminary enquiry by the AOC to ensure that no potential problem exists, and
 - 7.3.3 A recommendation by AOC to the Assembly Board for Provisional Accreditation pending full processing of the application.
- 7.4 A recommendation for full Accreditation may be considered by Assembly after due process.

8. REVISION OF REGISTER OF ACCREDITED AND ORDAINED PERSONS

- 8.1 Clause 19.3.2 of the Constitution provides for the revision, by the Assembly, of the Register of Accredited and/or Ordained Persons.
- 8.2 The Assembly Board may recommend the removal from the Register of a Pastor/Chaplain in any of the following circumstances:
- 8.2.1 After due investigation as outlined in Clause 5.2.5 of this Policy Statement relating to failure to fulfil the requirements of the Continuing Accreditation Process.
 - 8.2.2 In the case of a person who is deemed to no longer meet the Accreditation Criteria as outlined in Clause 3.1 of this Policy Statement.
 - 8.2.3 In the case of any person whose behaviour is deemed to be prejudicial to the witness of the Baptist Churches of South Australia or the good name of the Christian ministry. (Refer to the Code of Ethics applicable to Pastors/Ministers of the Baptist Churches of South Australia and The Protocol for Investigating Complaints on Matters Pertaining to Breaches of the Code of Ethics.)
 - 8.2.4 In the case of a person whose acknowledged theological views are deemed a radical deviation from the Foundation Values set out in Clause 4 of the Constitution.
 - 8.2.5 When an Accredited Pastor/Chaplain has not held a position relevant to the accreditation for a period of three years.
 - 8.2.6 When an Accredited Pastor/Chaplain is not working for the number of hours deemed by the Accreditation and Ordination Committee to be sufficient to maintain competence in the relevant accreditation category.
 - 8.2.7 When a Pastor/Chaplain resigns their Accreditation.

8.3 Retirement

Clause 19.3.1.3 of the Constitution provides for the inclusion in the Register of Accredited and/or Ordained persons those who have retired from active ministry on account of age or certified medical unfitness. A person so recorded will not be bound by the requirements of Clause 5, Continuing Accreditation Process. However, should that person accept a call as a Pastor or Chaplain in a Member Church or affiliated agency in an interim capacity, he/she will provide the AOC with a written affirmation of their agreement to uphold the Foundational Values of Baptist Churches of South Australia and to abide by the Baptist Churches of South Australia Code of Ethics and Child Protection Policy, including undertaking the BCSA recommended Childsafe training.

9. EMPLOYMENT IN AN ORGANISATION NOT AFFILIATED WITH BAPTIST CHURCHES OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

An accredited person who accepts employment as a Pastor or Chaplain with an organization not affiliated with Baptist Churches of South Australia may retain their accreditation by adhering to the following process:

- 9.1 Upon accepting such employment, the person must advise the AOC in writing of the details, including the time-frame, of the proposed ministry role, and also, in the case of a Chaplain, the member church of which they are a member in good standing.
- 9.2 The AOC will confirm the suitability of the proposed ministry arrangement, and seek the approval of the Assembly Board for the accreditation to continue.
- 9.3 The accredited person will be advised in writing of the Assembly Board's decision.
- 9.4 Where the Assembly Board has approved the continuation of the Accreditation, the accredited person will continue to comply with the provisions of Clause 5, Continuing Accreditation Process.
- 9.5 The accredited person will advise the AOC of any change in their employment arrangements to enable the matter of their accreditation to be reviewed.
